

ENTACT is currently hiring personnel for the following positions. *Candidates must be able to pass background check, and pre-placement physical and drug test. Current 40-Hour Hazwoper certificate required. All positions require extensive travel.

Heavy Equipment Operator

Must have experience in environmental or earthwork construction industry. Ability to operate a dozer, excavator, loader, and end-dumps required. Must be able to wear personal protection equipment including respirators and full protective suits, and have the ability to lift at least 50 pounds. Previous experience working around heavy equipment preferred.

Construction Laborer

Performance of general labor activities associated with hazardous and non-hazardous waste cleanup, site remediation, equipment and facility decontamination, industrial tank cleaning, and emergency response activities. Must be able to wear personal protection equipment including respirators and full protective suits, and must have the ability to lift at least 50 pounds. Previous experience working around heavy equipment preferred.

Site Superintendent

Ideal candidates will have at least 10 years of experience in supervising several aspects of environmental remediation services including ISS/ESS, Sheet Pile Installation, Excavation/Backfilling, Slurry Wall Installation, Decontamination/Demolition, etc. "Hands on" managers preferred.

Health & Safety Officer

Position is responsible for implementing ENTACT's Behavior Based Health and Safety Program, performing on-site air monitoring, and maintaining compliance with health and safety regulations and company policy. Candidates should have previous environmental/construction health and safety experience and a working knowledge of OSHA 1926 and 1910 standards. Certified OHST, CHST, or CSP candidates desired.

Administrative Project Manager

Working closely with field project management and the Health and Safety team this position includes project planning, estimating, financial tracking, scheduling, procurement/vendor coordination, forecasting, invoicing, reporting, customer communication, and various other administrative tasks related to the proper and timely execution of ENTACT projects. Frequent and extended travel is required. Undergraduate business/accounting degree OR equivalent degree/work experience in the environmental construction arena required. Strong computer skills especially Excel a must.